

ERIC P. EBELING

Eric P. Ebeling is Vice President & General Manager Government Relations for American Roll-On Roll-Off Carrier (ARC) and American Shipping & Logistics (ASL) Group, focusing primarily on public policy, government relations, and public relations for the companies. Mr. Ebeling is also Vice President Region Europe & Atlantic Trade for ARC, with P&L responsibility for the North Atlantic trade.

American Roll-on Roll-off Carrier is the largest U.S.-flag Ro-Ro carrier, and the third largest U.S.-flag carrier overall operating in international trade. Founded in 1990, the company is headquartered in New Jersey with major satellite offices in Frankfurt, Dubai, and Washington, DC. ARC operates services between U.S. East Coast ports and ports in North Europe and the United Kingdom, as well as between U.S. East and Gulf Coast ports, transiting the Mediterranean, to the Middle East and South Asia.

Mr. Ebeling has held several other positions within the group, including Director Government Relations, General Manager Europe, Manager Sales & Marketing Europe, and Operations Manager in the logistics group. He joined the company in 2003.

Prior to his work at ASL Group, Mr. Ebeling attended American University Washington College of Law (JD Law, 2001), American University School of International Service (MA International Studies, 2001), and Bowdoin College (AB Government & English, 1998). He is a member of the Maryland State Bar Association.

Mr. Ebeling resides in Bethesda, Maryland with his wife Julia and their two daughters, Alexandra and Olivia.
